

Elementary/Production Director

By title, Church @ The Springs is seeking a full-time Elementary/Production Director. We're looking for someone to join our children's ministry team to lead the Elementary Ministry at our Ocala campus and work to raise the bar in production and digital media for the children's ministry as a whole. By description, we're seeking an extremely confident, wildly creative, tech-savvy individual who loves production but is still primarily concerned about developing volunteers and helping kids grow in faith.

You might be:

- A college graduate with a background in Bible, education, communication, production, or other corporate experience you know would translate well into the church.
- A children's ministry leader looking to expand your experience and capability as part of a large multi-site church.
- A children's ministry leader who would love to serve as part of a kid's team that allows you to focus on your creative and production gifts.
- Volunteering at a high level in children's ministry with a desire to be developed and pursue ministry as a career.

You are:

- Passionate about seeing kids develop a personal relationship with Jesus.
- Able to recognize talent, engage volunteers, and develop them for ministry.
- Serious about giving ministry away, not just doing ministry yourself.
- Over-the-top tech and video savvy. Able to communicate with digital learners.
- Wildly creative but able to bring your ideas to fruition.
- A strong written and verbal communicator, able to express timeless truth in a way kids can understand.
- Highly relational and works well with others.
- Teachable and willing to learn and grow.

You will be:

- Working at a large, growing, multi-site church.
- Leading volunteers to create a fun and attractive elementary environment for kids.
- Providing for the enlistment, care, training, and evaluation of all elementary volunteers at the Ocala Campus.
- Developing digital media and content for various children's ministry programming and events.
- Creating elementary worship experiences that are easily transferable and exportable to multiple campuses.
- Reporting to the Kids' Pastor and working with the Springs Kids team to provide leadership and direction for the children's ministry at large.
